

All of us at UNIQLO are extremely proud to partner with the International Tennis Federation, as the title sponsor of the UNIQLO Wheelchair Tennis Tour. The Tour comprises over 160 tournaments in more than 40 countries, including wheelchair tennis events at all four Grand Slam tournaments. UNIQLO became the official title sponsor of the Tour in 2014, and we are very pleased to have extended our sponsorship.

UNIQLO first appointed wheelchair tennis player Shingo Kunieda as our Global Brand Ambassador in 2009. While the bond between UNIQLO and wheelchair tennis began with Mr. Kunieda, it is truly exciting for us to see a younger generation of players improving their performance and coming up the ranks. At the same time, we are happy that the popular appeal of wheelchair tennis is growing rapidly worldwide.

UNIQLO is a leading global brand from Japan. We design, manufacture and retail LifeWear – clothing that is constantly being innovated and improved, bringing more warmth, more lightness, better design, and better comfort to people's lives. Our aim is to offer great clothing, with new and unique value to all.

Similarly, through our continuous involvement with wheelchair tennis, we wish to support those facing disability and enrich the lives of people everywhere.

I wish everyone involved in the event the very best of luck, and I hope that you have an enjoyable week.
